Pack of 3 Bertschy Emasculator 37cm with Ratchet Triple Crush Castration Plier Large Animals Surgical Veterinary Instrument

Bertschy Emasculator has three actions: clamping, crushing and cutting. It draws the cord concentrically into the jaws, thus preventing slipping. As the jaws are closed on the spermatic cord, it is gripped by the clamping part. Ratchets hold emasculator locked.

Premium Quality Stainless Steel Hoof Tester 13" Pincer Designed Tip Round Jaws Equine Hoof Care Medical Diagnostic Horse Doctor Veterinary Instrument

Hoof tester is an important tool for farriers & veterinarians. Stainless steel hoof testing forceps are used to test lameness in cattle and horses. Hoof testers are large steel pincers designed to apply focal pressure to specific areas of the hoof. The primary goal in a hoof tester examination is to test for a pain response, usually indicated by the horse as a withdrawal of the limb. Hoof testing usually takes place after other parts of a lameness exam are completed. Additional information including the deformability or malleability of the tissues of the hoof, and hoof texture, is also gained from this diagnostic.

HOOF TESTER FEATURES

PREMIUM HOOF TESTER: Hoof testers have been a part of the veterinarian toolbox for years. The reins are what you hold in your hands; the jaws are the area that goes against the foot; and the stops, located at the base of the jaws prevent the tips of the jaws from hitting each other.

EASY TO USE: This horse hoof tester is user friendly and easy to clean as it is autoclavable. Hoof testers are steel pincers designed to apply focal pressure to specific areas of the hoof.

BEAUTIFULLY FORGED: High mirror finish hoof tester for horses. Ultrasonic cleaned polished and passivated for ultimate aesthetic over many years.
